Defining Leadership

Module Overview

The skills of Leadership contribute significantly to modern working practices. In this course, we will lay the foundations for effective and efficient leadership with the emphasis on leadership by professionalism.

The modern leader requires a complete range of skills and will understand the relationships between effective leadership and achievement of the organisation's goals.

By examining leadership styles and their applicability to the organisation, delegates will acquire a skill set which can be translated into the working environment. The appropriate use of different styles in different situations will be examined and illustrations from the experiences of other organisations introduced.

The development of competencies and their monitoring together with concept and application of key skills will be covered. During the day the delegates will have to opportunity to demonstrate their understanding during practical workshops.
